

A resort for your pet? Why not? You seek the finest accommodations for your own vacation and the best summer camps for your children, so why choose anything less for your faithful friend? One of the finest boarding facilities in this area of the state is Dogwood Acres Pet Retreat in Davidsonville. Come see their new state-of-the-art expansion facility at 439 West Central Ave which offers deluxe boarding accommodations for your pet. Well maintained boarding facilities include clean indoor sleeping quarters, spacious outdoor runs, and acres of enclosed play areas so that your dog can exercise as much as he likes. Clean fresh water is always available and nutritious meals include high protein feeds. Of course, any special dietary and medical requirements will also be taken care of while boarding. Unique accommodations, separate from the canine facility, are available for your favorite feline or geriatric friend. All breeds of dogs and cats are welcome and additional services include professional bathing, pet massage, and their pet limo. Check out their doggie daycare program as well. This popular program provides a structured playtime environment that allows your dog to interact with other dogs of the same age, sociability, and activity level. While you're working throughout the day, your dog is playing, getting exercise and personal attention. For more information or rates call 410-798-4776.
